Accero Announces Strategic Partnership with MasterTax

New partnership provides Accero's customers full integration with industry leading tax filing solution.

Portland, OR – March 10, 2009 – Accero Software (formerly Cyborg Systems), a leading international provider of Payroll, Human Resources and Benefits Management solutions, and MasterTax, LLC, the leading independent provider of payroll tax compliance software, today announced a new partnership agreement that will enable Accero clients to seamlessly access tax filing software and services from MasterTax.

For nearly 35 years, Accero's Solution Series software has helped companies manage payroll, HR, and benefits administration. With the MasterTax partnership, Accero will now offer customers an option to automate the scheduling, paying, balancing, and filing of their payroll taxes using MasterTax software.

“Utilizing our innovative processes and technology, MasterTax customers gain a distinct advantage in completing the payroll tax compliance process,” said Richard Warneka, president of MasterTax, LLC. “We are excited to provide Accero customers with software that ensures accuracy and efficiency for payroll tax filing efforts and look forward to a long and successful partnership with Accero.”

The agreement will enable Accero customers to quickly and efficiently complete their entire payroll process. Customers will now be able to seamlessly incorporate the MasterTax payroll tax filing software into their existing payroll processing environment.

“Our partnership with MasterTax provides a valuable service for our customers, many of whom have struggled to manage the payroll tax filing process on their own,” said Tom Malone, chief executive officer of Accero. “This partnership also demonstrates our focused commitment to customer care as it represents our response to customer requests for complimentary offerings through partnerships with proven market leaders.”
